

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The Attorney General of Indiana has accomplished something that even the Federal Government could not. By allowing "business relationships" to place annoying "Marketer" calls we will be, again, annoyed by dinner time calls. Please do not override the pride of Indiana.